The 4th International Contemporary Artists' Book Fair

marks a key development in the ethos of this one day event. The award of a Regional Arts Lottery Project grant has provided funding for the development of a two year programme of related lectures, workshops, journals and an archive.

0 Whilst the book fair remains the focus for the project, the aim is to provide an extended public forum for the discussion and development of some of the concepts and working practices underpinning the genre. This has been made possible by the lottery grant and is a timely vote of confidence for those already committed to the genre.
